Pre-Conference Workshop

with Prof. Harold G. Koenig MD and other experts, May 18-21, 2014

Preceding the ECRSH14 we invite you to participate in the 4-day Pre-Conference Research Workshop with Prof. Koenig. The workshop is open to all interested in doing research on religion, spirituality and health (accepting participants of any educational level or degree, including theologians, chaplains, physicians, nurses, psychologists, pastoral counselors, public health specialists, epidemiologists, or other).

Prof. Koenig is known as senior author of the "Handbook of Religion and Health". Prof. Koenig holds a university teaching position as full professor at Duke University Medical Center (Internal Medicine, Psychiatry, and Behavioral Sciences). Furthermore Prof. Koenig is director of the Center for Spirituality, Theology and Health at Duke University and Distinguished Adjunct Professor at King Abdulaziz University in Jeddah, Saudi Arabia.

The center at Duke University used to offer a 1-year post-doctoral fellowship in religion and health, which Prof. Koenig has now compressed into 4-day workshops like the one being offered here.

The following topics will be discussed:

- Historical connections between religion & health
- Previous research on religion, spirituality and physical as well as mental health

- Strengths and weaknesses of previous research
- Theological considerations and concerns
- Highest priority studies for future research
- Strengths and weaknesses of religion/spirituality measures
- Designing different types of research projects
- Funding and managing a research project
- Writing a research paper for publication, getting it published
- Presenting research to public audiences, working with the media
- Developing an academic career in this area
- Overview on RSH research in Europe

Mentorship meetings will allow the participants to discuss individual research projects.

Combined participation on ECRSH14 and on the pre-conference workshop is possible. The detailed program and payment information are ready for download on the RISH homepage: www.rish.ch.
